

05/28/09 - Google Search is now the default search engine

After some testing we became certain that the previous search engine simply didn't cut it. The decision was made to rely on Google Search as our primary search engine. The results page is skinned to match the site's theme as closely as possible. Hopefully, this should provide better matching results and save you some of your precious time.