

03/03/09 - First award for Marcilan from NCAADR

I am glad to inform you that Marcilan has received his first award. I received the Turner research award from North Carolina American Association for Dental Research which is given for excellency in research. This is great news for me, for everyone involved in the development, and for Marcilan. Hopefully more to come